New Jersey Law Journal and Connecticut Law Tribune Select Evergreen Printing

We are proud to announce that New Jersey Law Journal and Connecticut Law Tribune have signed a multi-year contract with Evergreen to print their weekly publications.

Published since 1878, New Jersey Law Journal is the statewide legal authority for New Jersey which has the 5th largest attorney population in the country.

New Jersey Law Journal is the official source for all state and federal court notices with journalism from award winning reporters. The Connecticut Law Tribune is Connecticut's only weekly newspaper devoted to covering the legal community with the latest developments in Connecticut's courts, law firms, and the legislature. In addition to the printing and mailing of these weekly publications, Evergreen will also print and insert custom published supplements that expand the editorial content to subscribers. These publications are part of ALM, an integrated media company that is a leading provider of news and business information to the legal and real estate industries.

Evergreen prints both heatset (coated paper) and coldset (uncoated paper) for magazines, newspapers, and periodicals with daily, weekly, and monthly distribution. Complete printing, bindery, inserting, tip-on, polybagging, mailing and circulation fulfillment services allow Evergreen to be a complete solution for publishers. Located in Bellmawr NJ, outside Philadelphia PA, Evergreen takes pride in serving local, regional, national and international publishers.
